THE TRIAL of Dr. Jay F. Gallatin, for the shooting of Dr. Jones, was concluded on Thursday of last week. The details of the evidence and trial were disgusting to the last degree .-Gallatin claimed that Jones had seduced Mrs. Gallatin, and after failing to compromise the mat'er by extorting biact-mail, Gallatin was siezed with a fit of temporary insanity, and proceeded to vindicate his honor and the charity of his wife by shooting Jones. Notwithstanding the usual plea of insanity, the Jury Paw. The place is a desirable one, and will be returned a verdict of manslaughter, and Judge | sold cheap. Payne, before whom the trial was had, meted out to Gallatin a sentense of ten years, at hard labor in the Penitentiary.

ANOTHER RAILROAD HORROR

Appalling Calamity at New Hamburg, N. Y .-Two Trains Collide Upon a Bridge-The Trains and Bridge Pestroyed by Fire-Passengers Literally Roasted Alive.

POUGHEEPSIE, N. Y., Feb. 7.—An accident occured on the Hndson River railroad last night, at New Hamburg, caused by an off train bound north catching fire and setting the bridge at New Hamburg also on fire. The Pacific express came up and ran into the oil train, and caught fire also. The bridge gave way under the weight, when the train went down in a jumbled mass. The locomotive, express car, baggage car, Pullman car, and the coach and sleeping car of the express, went down with a crash. The engineer of the express train was killed; also, the conductor of the Pullman car and brakeman. Several passingers on the Pullman and sleeping cars, unab, e to get out when the crash occurred, were burn ed to death or drowned. burn ed to death or drowned.

of physicians are there from Poughkeepsie to attend the wounded and dying, and search is now being made for dead bodies. Further particulars and the number of dead and wounded cannot be ascertained at this hour. Doc Simmons, engineer, Peter Vossburgh, conductor of the Pullman car, and the brakeman are known to be killed.

The scene at the track is fearful. One corps

New York, Feb. 7.—The latest dispatches report about twenty-five persons killed, and at least forty or fifty wounded, by the Hudson River rail-way accident. Several members of the Legislature are be-heved to have been killed.

Dry Goods

BUSINESC. But still we are not so valu as to think we can convince every one of the honesty of our letentions; there will no doubt he some who will laugh at the idea of a Morchant selling Goods at Gost, however much it may be to bis advantage to do so, and declare it a humbug got up for the purpose of imposing upon the credulous. But to such we say, in all charity, call upon as and if we do not convince you that we act in good faith, and offerour Goods imparti lly and unreservedly, was will give you liberty to explode the whole,

With this explanation of our intentions, wo nee more come before the public and respectfully invite the attention of our friends, sustomers, and the public generally, to this natice assuring them that nothing shall be wanting on our part to secure to them and as the object

That their interest as it e'er has been before, May still be found at Smith's Cheap Long
